It has been said that a quality walk is well worth repeating and in keeping with that sentiment and the celebration of the Penn Dutch Pacers 25 years we are doing just that. With that in mind, the Penn Dutch Pacers return to the Village of Neffsville. In 1997 the Pacers held a weekend walking event in Neffsville honoring the 50th wedding anniversary of club charter members Wayne and Myrna Oak. Although health issues prevented Wayne and Myrna from attending the event, never the less it was a memorable occasion. The trail, designed by Wayne, received many compliments.

Seven years ago (2007) on September 15 & 16 was the last time that the Penn Dutch Pacers held a walk in Neffsville which also started in the pavilion in Manheim Township Community Park. Join us again as we explore all the variety that Neffsville has to offer.

The Village of Neffsville in located in Manheim Township, on route 501, two miles north of Lancaster City. Being unincorporated, the village has no official boundaries. Neffsville was named for the family of Johan Christian Neff, who was originally from Gerolshelm, Germany. Johan arrived in Philadelphia on September 19, 1743. He moved to Lampeter Township in Lancaster County and married the former Frena Howery. They had three children, Christian, Henry and Esther. All three children married and lived in Lancaster County. An elementary school on School Road, Neffsville was named for Henry Neff. Neffsville citizens of note include Jim Furyk (professional golfer), Don Gehman (record producer) and Brad Rutter (winningest game show contestant in TV history).

The start point for this years Neffsville walking event on Saturday only May 17th is the Manheim Township Community Park. Join us again as we explore all the variety that Neffsville has to offer. For a great walking weekend in Central Pennsylvania why not consider venturing to York County to do the Susquehanna Rovers’ Red Lion walk in Southern York County. Walk in Red Lion either Saturday or Sunday, May 17 & 18. The start point is the Red Lion Senior Center, 20 Gotham Place, Red Lion. The trail rating is 2A (since Red Lion does have some hills) on sidewalks throughout the town. Registration is from 8-1, finish by 4.
