TRAIL: Explore historic Malvern -- originally settled by Welch immigrants on land purchased from William Penn in the 17th Century. Long known as West Chester Intersection, the village was named Malvern in 1873 when the railroad was straightened to stop there - placing it on Philadelphia's famous Main Line. Malvern boasts varied architecture and a vibrant business district with many shops and restaurants. Walkers will also visit the Paoli Battlefield Site and Parade Grounds, where the Paoli Massacre took place on September 20, 1777.

Nearby points of interest include Immaculata University, the Wharton Esherick Studio and Museum (tours must be booked at least 48 hours in advance), and Duffy's Cut.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS: Boardwalks, Ice Cream Parlors, Take a Walk in a City Park, US Post Offices, Walking the USA A to Z

AWARD: The A Award patch will feature the Paoli Battlefield 1817 Monument, one of the oldest Revolutionary War monuments.

FEES: $3 credit only, $7 credit and award, free walkers welcome.
